Super One State Criminal Instant State Criminal	This search contains criminal record information from various reporting agencies throughout a single state. Examples of sources that may contribute data are Department of Corrections, Administration of Courts, county courts and sex offender registries within a state.
Federal Criminal 1 Federal Criminal Search	Some offenses are violations of Federal law as opposed to state or local law. Records of these crimes are located in the US District Courts. Each state has at least one US District Court, while others are divided into as many as four districts. Some offenses can include kidnapping, drug trafficking, interstate transportation of stolen goods, bank robbery and embezzlement.
Triple C Criminal County Courthouse Criminal	This is a robust tool for uncovering criminal records. All law enforcement agencies report felony and misdemeanor charges. A county criminal search is where a record is likely to be filed. We have researchers who visit a county courthouse in every county in the United States. Here, the researcher reviews actual criminal records which go back a minimum of seven years and include felonies and misdemeanors. Some court fees may apply.

As a privately owned company, CBSP is not limited to using certain vendors for any of our background screening data. This is critical to the depth and breadth of our data. We at CBSP have the freedom to research, test, evaluate and choose the vendors we use. This is important because not all vendors supply quality data of the highest integrity. CBSP does not engage in business with any vendor until we conduct our own due diligence.
